

Critical Acclaim for

SHE HAS A NAME

“A riveting, fast-paced political thriller”

CALGARY HERALD

Central Alberta Film Festival

“She Has A Name is a hugely important film for this year, bringing home the realities of a global issue that must be tackled. I encourage everyone to [watch] it and help to fund freedom.”

HER ROYAL HIGHNESS
PRINCESS EUGENIE OF YORK

“A cinematic triumph!”

RED DEER EXPRESS

She Has A Name* “offers a unique and timely perspective into the realities of this crisis”

CANON ANDREW WHITE,
“Vicar of Baghdad”

“Scenes ring searingly true....
Simply stunning.”

RED DEER ADVOCATE

She Has A Name* “is a film of depth and detail, honestly portraying how countless people lose life and liberty to ruthless criminals.”

KEVIN HYLAND, OBE
Anti-Slavery Commissioner, UK

“She Has A Name is brilliant!”

TABEA OPPLIGER
Glowbalact, Switzerland

“She Has A Name not only exposes the culture of complicity that allows human trafficking to continue, the film compels us toward private and public action.”

MAYOR TARA VEER, City of Red Deer

“Human trafficking is a heinous crime that robs its victims, often young women and girls, of their most basic human rights. It is important that Canadian films such as She Has A Name are able to draw international attention to this disturbing business.”

GORDON CAMPBELL
Former High Commissioner to the UK

“I commend the production team and crew of the film She Has A Name for drawing attention to the plight of the victims of human trafficking networks”

PHIL CALVERT
Former Canadian Ambassador to Thailand,
Cambodia and Lao

“When I saw She Has A Name ... I was really moved. One of the best films I have ever seen, and I don’t say that lightly.”
